

Samantha is a fifth grade student currently receiving special education services in the areas of reading writing and mathematics. Currently Samantha is reading at a late 3rd grade to early fourth grade level. At the end of the school year she passed the beginning year fourth grade QRI. She is able to read all sight words 500/500 to the fifth grade level and is working toward independent reading where she will be answering comprehension questions about what she has read.

Samantha is working toward becoming a better writer. She is able to give her pieces voice and she has great ideas on what to write about. She can accurately spell 300 high frequency words and applies capitalization rules 80% of the time. Samantha is able to write a complete paragraph on topic.

In mathematics Samantha can solve three-digit addition problems with regrouping 80% of the time. She can solve two-step story problems using addition and subtraction. She also knows names of coins, their amounts and how to add and subtract quantities under $100.00 dollars.