MESOAMERICA: A LOOK BACK IN TIME WEBQUEST
PYRAMIDS/ARCHITECTURE

Describe the two types of pyramids the Mayans built.
1. ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

2. ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

The Aztec built a different kind of pyramid called ________ ________ pyramids.

An example of this Aztec pyramid is __________ ________. Who was this temple dedicated to and what did it look like?

   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________

The Inca were known for their stone architecture used to build buildings, walls, doorways, and stairs and walkways. List 6 interesting facts about this type of architecture.

1. ______________________________________________________

2. ______________________________________________________

3. ______________________________________________________

4. ______________________________________________________

5. ______________________________________________________

6. ______________________________________________________